NEA's UniServ, Organizer, and Campaign Lab:
Intersectional Black Leadership: Shaping Labor and Education Movements

Key Course Outcomes:

- Identify key Black leaders, particularly women and LGBTQ individuals, who shaped the U.S. labor and education movements.
- Describe landmark events in labor and education history influenced by Black leaders.
- Analyze the intersection of civil rights, educational equity, and labor rights through lesser-known historical figures.
- Connect lessons from past Black leadership to present-day union advocacy and education reform.
