

Safe and Resilient Schools Pathways of Action

This checklist helps users identify what areas/items require further investigation. If the “NO” column is checked off in any of the below categories, those items will require additional follow-up, investigation, and mitigation. Please add further context in the comments (ex. whether or not the organization/entity is actively working on the issue).

	Pathways of Action	Where to Look	Yes	No	Unsure	N/A	Comments
1	Are there any federal regulations?	Bipartisan Safer Communities Act U.S. Department of Education U.S. Department of Homeland Security School Safety. Gov
2	Are there any state regulations?	State Department of Juvenile Justice State Department of Education
3	Are there any local regulations?	Local safety polices governed by county boards or city counsel Local School Board Policies
4	Do you have any collective bargaining language?	CBMA Database
5	Are there memos of understanding?	MOUs related to SROs- Locality Police Department and Local Schools Review State Department of Education memos and Superintendent memos

6	Do you have any school board policy?	Review local school division school board docs and policies housed on their website
7	Do you have any community partners?	Local Emergency Management Agencies (Fire, EMS, and Police Dept) Local Colleges and Universities Local and State Racial and Social Justice groups
8	Do you have any parent allies?	National Organizations: Parent Teacher Association Local Parent Groups Local Special Education Parent Advisory Board
9	Local association committees	Local Non-Profit Organizations Community Service Boards
10	Local leader support	Local Association City council members Community organizations
11	Union worksite presence	Local Affiliate Bargaining/Non-Bargaining
12	Labor-management committees	Contract Board Policy
13	Other unions	State registry and reporting sites					